Fireside Chat- Press Release

An interactive session with the author of "Chennai Brew- Some Voices Some Communities"- Ms. Anuradha Uberoi conducted by the Department of English and Cultural Studies under the stewardship of Dr. Deepti Gupta (Chairperson) on 10th January, 2020 at Dr. Mulk Raj Anand Auditorium, Panjab University. The event saw students and teachers actively taking part in the interaction with the talented author, who shared anecdotes and stories of different people from different communities from all over India. Through her book she aspires to bring people from diverse communities closer to one another while highlighting their characteristic qualities. She shared some of her own experiences of living in Chennai for thirty two years with the audience. Dr. Deepti Gupta later presented Ms. Uberoi with a token of appreciation and the event was wrapped up with a 'Networking at Tea' session.
