A.C.BALI MEMORIAL AND KRISHAN KISHORE GROVER GOODWILL DECLAMATION CONTEST

On the morning of February 28, 2020, the Dept. of English and Cultural Studies hosted the A.C. Bali Memorial Declamation Contest at 10.00 AM and Krishnan Kishore Grover Goodwill Declamation Contest at 12.00 noon under the stewardship of Prof. Deepti Gupta, chairperson, Dept. of English and Cultural Studies. The contestants orated enthusiastically on diverse topics like “Shopping in the Age of Free-Home Shopping”, “The Farmer-Sorrow Sower”, “Is Cycling the Solution to Cricket and Capitalism”, and “Joys of Plagiarism”.

The event witnessed enthusiastic participation from students of various colleges and institutions like UIPS, MCM DAV College for Women Sector 36 Chd, SGGS College Sector 26 Chd, CCET Sector 26 Chd, and DAV College, Dasuya Hoshiarpur. The jury for the event included Prof. Pratibha Nagpal (Dept. of English and Cultural Studies), Prof. Harpreet Pruthi (Dept. of English and Cultural Studies), and Prof. Shashi Chaudhary (Human Genome Dept.). The winners for A.C.Bali Memorial included Aayush Arora fromUILS, Tanya Talwar from GCG 11 and Aayushi Pant from GCCBA-50, whereas Tanya Ahuja from PU-ISSER, Lavnima Sharma from MCM and Vincy Trehan from CGC-11, Ludhiana were the respective winners for Krishnan Kishore Grover Goodwill Declamation contests.

The event concluded with a sumptuous lunch where the participants mingled with one another and bid adieu to each other, promising to meet again next year.

For further enquiries, contact:

Prof. Deepti Gupta, Chairperson, Dept. of English and Cultural Studies: 9815602090

Office, Dept. of English and Cultural Studies: 0172-2543638